\\ The Future of Partnerships in International Education

With Steve Berridge - Senior Vice-President, Future Students & International, Victoria University

1. How do you believe TNE partnerships will be impacted next year?

Significant growth in offshore delivery demand (25) 24%

More students studying for longer back home (44) 43%

More foreign branch campuses opening (14) 14%

An increase in the number of students transferring to Australia (5) 5%

Fewer students participating in TNE programmes (15) 15%

2. Over the next few years which country / region will see the greatest decline in the number of Australian students on mobility programmes?

USA (31) 30%

China (55) 53%

UK (3) 3%

Japan (0) 0%

Canada (0) 0%

Western Europe (10) 10%

South East Asia (4) 4%

3. Do you think the recommendation by the Chinese Ministry of Education to 'be cautious about choosing to go to Australia' will dramatically lower the numbers of Chinese students coming to Australia over the next 12 months?

4. Do you think students will still come to Australia if they know that up to 50% of their course will be online due to social distancing measures/on campus restrictions?
